FROM THE RECTORY

Post Christmas is always meant to be depressing. The excitement and celebration is over for another year. We still have the long dark nights but nothing to look forward to. What I find amazing though, is how quickly after the shortest day, despite people's post Christmas blues, nature is getting itself into gear for spring. The birds and the plants pick up on the slightest hints that year has turned and gradually as December becomes January and January gets going, the dawn chorus, which starts as a few stalwart voices gets louder, longer and stronger. The bare hedgerows begin to start sprouting and by mid January catkins are dancing in the wind. Plants and bird are attuned to even the smallest changes and they trust the natural processes.

Human beings too are called to hope and trust. In the Church, the next season after Christmas is called Epiphany. It means "revealing", "making known" and the theme for these post Christmas weeks is how God revealed Jesus to the world. In our readings, we hear the story of Joseph's dream, the appearance of the star to guide the wise men to see the baby Jesus: we listen to how the adult Jesus was revealed to the prophet John when Jesus came for baptism and how Jesus revealed himself to his family and friends by turning water into the finest wine at a wedding feast when stocks had run out. We hear these stories about long ago but they remind us that God still communicates and reveals Himself to those who are looking and who in Jesus' words, "have ears to hear".

So don't be overtaken by the February blues but, like the birds and hedgerow plants, be attentive to the signs of hope and love around you. Just as the birds and plants trust the year's cycle, so we trust the constancy of God. Ask God to open your eyes, ears and hearts to the signs of the kingdom around and within you. The God who revealed Jesus as the Son, the Word made flesh to those who lived in first century Palestine, continues to reveal him to people today. This has been the experience of the Church through the ages, one generation bearing witness to the next that God has made himself known, not with great pomp and ceremony and often not in church at all but gently and softly within the fabric of our everyday lives. What will God show you? Jo

BISHOP'S LETTER

BE READY TO GLIMPSE GOD'S LOVE IN THE EVERYDAY

I have largely resisted the temptation to wax lyrical about the sabbatical three months that I had in the latter part of last year, but the dark days of January have prompted me to reflect on one particular experience that followed Liz and I as we travelled through France in those first few weeks of our time away.

Some of you may know that I have a fondness for bird watching. This never gets serious enough to gain me entry into the 'twitcher' fraternity, but does provide me with memorable 'glimpses of glory' from time to time. One of the joys of my office in the Palace is that its window looks out on to the moat and I have regular sights of a kingfisher as it goes about its daily business. Little did I expect that our trip round France would be interrupted with similar sightings at every place we stayed. At first I put it down to coincidence, but as a friend remarked perhaps it was 'God incidence'

The writer, Chris Arthur, in a lovely book of essays called 'Words of the Grey Wind', speaks challengingly about the Kingfisher. "Is our life punctuated by a flash of kingfisher colour as something transcendent impinges upon us, or are we imprisoned in the world we see, earth bound and clumsy, shackled immovably to the chains of our own finitude? I've looked hard", he goes on, "for the fly past that might herald such otherness. Sometimes I have been surprised by something unexpected, sudden, beautiful, seemingly like the stuff of fantasy, too exotic for the mundane world. But have I really seen it? Sometimes nothing much seems to stir above the waters of the ordinary. But has my vigil been sufficiently keen to catch that sudden glimpse of sapphire light?"

As the dark days of winter begin to give way to the onset of spring, may our hearts and lives be ready, amongst what appears to be the ordinary and the everyday, to catch a glimpse of that sudden flash of azure light, perhaps in the laughter of a child, in the kindness of a neighbour, the hospitality of a stranger, or in that first glimpse of a snowdrop, that reveals to us something of the wonder, the beauty and the love of our God .

Many thanks to Rita Hoddinott for organising and funding the repair of the font cover in St Andrew's Church. DAFFODIL FESTIVAL – BAYFORD CHAPEL, SATURDAY 26th MARCH 2011

After a long and cold winter, come and celebrate the arrival of British Summer Time at a Daffodil Festival to be held at Bayford Chapel on Saturday 26th March 2011 from 10.00 am to 5.00 pm. It would be lovely to see the building brimming over with the bright spring colour of daffodils. The aim is to involve adults and children, with the former entering their own arrangements and the latter being encouraged to use any container e.g. a jam jar, and lots of imagination! Additionally, for the children there will be an area where they can paint a picture and enter it in a competition. A large jar of sweets awaits the winner! In addition to the flowers and pictures on show, there will be coffee, tea, hot cross buns etc. served throughout the day. There will be a small entrance fee and the proceeds will go towards the costs of refurbishing the rear windows and other parts of the hall.

If you or members of your family would like to enter an arrangement or offer to help in the organisation of the day, please contact Maggie Giles on 01963 33147 or Diana Noble on 01963 31071 (diana.noble@btinternet.com).

NBN

The Christmas Tree Festival organised by Diana Noble was another success, despite weather conditions, attracting many favourable comments, and raising £376. Congratulations Diana and well done to all those in the Benefice who decorated such imaginative trees.

F/ALG

The Christmas Fair was held on 4th December, a very cold day, and we are very grateful to those helpers who managed to brave the weather and also those who came to support the Fair. A total of £869 was raised, a little more than last year, which is fantastic, and we would like to say a big thank you to all those who gave in so many ways to the Fair.

F/ALG

Bayford Chapel Carol Service on December 23rd, 2010

This was a great success, as it was held at 3.00 pm, enabling young couples with children and some of our older members of the congregation to attend. The children were all extremely well behaved!

Stoke Trister with Bayford

Terry Rawlings

Sadly Terry died on December 22nd, just before his 79th birthday, and his funeral was held at St Andrew's on January 4th. The church was full to overflowing with family and friends who had come to remember him.

Terry had lived at Baskets Farm since 1952 having moved with his family from North End, Bath. He married Jenny in 1962 and they brought up their children Keith and Leigh at Baskets. Terry loved farming and at his funeral his nephew Alan spoke of his total commitment to the life – at one stage Terry had milked cows for ten years without missing a shift and continued to do the milking until he was 77. He had always enjoyed taking part in local social activities – when younger he was Captain of Darts at the Unicorn, also participating in local Tug-of War games, and, in later years, enjoyed the social team spirit offered in skittles. But the land and farming were his passion and he loved his farm and his life there. He will be much missed by all his family, friends and colleagues and we send our condolences to Jenny, Keith and Tess, Leigh and Nigel, and to his grandchildren. AD

Congratulations to Ken and Betty Footer on their Golden Wedding Anniversary on January 21st. Love from all your friends in Bayford. MG

Welcome to Fiona and Robin Tullett, who have moved into Bayford West Lodge. We hope they will be very happy here. MG

Our thoughts are with Geoffrey & Berna West. Geoffrey is in Yeovil Hospital, and we send our good wishes for his recovery. F/ALG

Our very best wishes go to Pady Yateman who is home after a spell in hospital. Keep up the recovery Pady. F/ALG

Roger Patch. We wish Roger a speedy recovery after his stay in Yeovil Hospital. MG

Congratulations. Nicholas Jackson and Tayah have a lovely baby daughter born on 27th December Lavender Holly Louise, Brian and Jennifer's 1st Grandchild. May God keep them in family union. JJ

Thanks to Averil & Brian Ellard & David Primmer who gave a wonderful village Christmas Tea Party on 6th December which was enjoyed by all who came. Delicious food, a quiz, carols, Christmas songs, readings & prizes added to the fun, and Jo blessed the clock in the Chapel given in memory of Biddie Lawson, so we felt she was there with us. We all thank Brian, Averil and David for the lovely afternoon and all the hard work they put into the party. F/ALG

Bayford Coffee Mornings. The December coffee morning was held at Maggie's house and this was a lovely change from the Chapel not least because it was beautifully warm! (and there was sherry!). Maggie had worked very hard decorating the tree and organising the raffle and mince pies and we would all like to thank both Maggie and Marcus for their hospitality and a great start to Christmas. The next Bayford Coffee Morning will be held on Thursday 3rd February at Bayford Chapel from 10am–12 noon. F/ALG

Many thanks to Maureen Parsons & Thelma Trett for organising the outing to Broadwindsor Craft Centre in November. This was a great success and we all returned with bulging shopping bags, depleted purses and having had a lovely day out. The restaurant served delicious meals and it was a very enjoyable trip. F/ALG

Many thanks to Mel and Paul Farrer for hosting a village Christmas party on 15th December at Frith Farmhouse. With mulled wine, and some lusty carol singing, it was such an enjoyable evening in a magical setting – and warm! AD

A Funeral Service for Jim Davis was held at St. Lawrence, Cucklington on Wednesday January 5th. A large congregation heard of his early life at school at Haileybury, where he developed an interest in rugby, before moving onto Clare College, Cambridge to read law, but then changed to study agriculture. On graduation, he was not allowed to enlist, but asked to advise Somerset farmers on the most productive use of their land for the war effort. He met his late wife Jean and they moved into Clapton Farm. He was an enthusiastic member of the local hunts and a keen sailor. He will be remembered for his love of the land, his knowledge of farming, and his readiness to guide and help others. Our condolences go to his daughters Sarah and Charlotte and members of the family.

LGF

John Hayter, who was the stockman at Clapton Farm, died suddenly over the Christmas period. A Service of Thanksgiving was held at St Peter's Church, Swallowcliffe. LGF

Mrs. Jackie Crisp has returned home after surgery. We wish her well for her continuing recovery.

Curly Weeks: One of Charlton Musgrove's oldest and well-loved residents, Curly Weeks, died at home on January 9th, having lived and worked in the area for over sixty years. His 100th birthday was celebrated in style last September at the Bull in Brewham, his favourite watering hole. He was a real countryman and walked every day with his faithful dog. He will leave a lot of fond memories, and we send sympathy to his daughter Joy.

Help tomorrow take shape: 2011 CENSUS:

On 27 March 2011 all residential households in the United Kingdom will be taking part in a census. Since 1801 a day has been chosen every ten years for this purpose. The census provides an excellent source of information about the population. This enables central and local government, health authorities and many other organisations to plan housing, education, health and transport services for years to come. More information about the 2011 Census can be found at: www.census.gov.uk.

Every questionnaire completed and returned by Friday 25 February will be entered for a £100 Prize Draw.

If you would like to discuss this further or need extra copies of the questionnaire these are available on our website, by e-mail or from members of the Steering Committee – contact Sally Amery 31330.
