FROM THE RECTORY

At the end of this month, on Sunday 29th May, people from across the three parishes will be gathering for a joint service at Church Farm Dairy in Cucklington. We always have a joint service if there is a fifth Sunday in the month but we don't usually meet on a farm. We will be on May 29th because it is Rogation Sunday, when Christians down the centuries have prayed for the growing season ahead. We no longer believe that God sits in heaven above our heads and turns the celestial taps on and off, so why do we still meet to pray for the livestock and the crops?

In the days of Morrisons, Tesco and Waitrose, it is easy for the wider world to forget that all the produce on supermarket shelves gets there because someone has worked hard to produce it. Praying for the land and its livestock reminds us, that alongside our clever technology and the amazing strides of modern science, we are all dependent, as all our ancestors have been, on plants that grow and animals that breed. The people who live high in urban tower blocks rely on the land that people work and the herds that people tend. On Rogation Sunday, we shall be praying for the land in our parishes, the crops it produces and the stock it supports. We shall be praying for all who work hard to husband it.

But if I look in my fridge or my cupboards, I will find food that isn't produced in Somerset, so we shall also pray for those whose produce we consume from the four corners of the earth.

Praying in this way reminds us that we are all interdependent, dependent on one another's work, and on the planet which supports us all. It reminds us of our responsibility to work and consume wisely. Praying reminds us of people's hard work, our duty to consume fairly and justly and to ensure that people receive a fair reward for their labour. Praying reminds us not to take things for granted.

But it will also be a time to celebrate, to give thanks for the bountiful and fruitful world in which we live and for our ability together to nurture and sustain a vibrant human community wisely and responsibly. Jo

Lots of things about Christianity you always wanted to know but had no opportunity to ask? The Study group is just for you. We shall be meeting for the first time on Tuesday 3rd May at 7.30pm at the Rectory in Cucklington to decide which topics to look at and how often to meet. Let me know if you are interested but cannot make the date or if you would be interested in a day time group.

I look forward to seeing you.

Jo

We live in an electronic age and as well as Magazines and newsletters, we can also communicate electronically. We have two ways in which we could develop our web communication.

The Wincanton Window is a good way to make sure that people know what is happening in our three parishes. I would be grateful if someone from each village could volunteer to be our link with the Wincanton window. If you are interested, do let me know.

The Bath and Wells diocese provides each of our parishes with websites. It would be good to do something constructive with it. If you would be willing to be part of a small group that could think how best we could make use of these sites, please let me know.

Jo

PARISH CHURCH NEWS

ALL PARISHES

COFFEE AND PLAY MORNING

Having young children and keeping a link with your local church might seem impossibly difficult. We want to make it easier, not by thinking up things you might enjoy or find helpful, but by asking you to tell us what would work for you.

So come to a Coffee and Play morning at Bayford Chapel on Saturday 7th May from 10.00 to 11.30pm. Come and bring anyone else you know you think might be interested. We will provide refreshments for everyone and activities for the children: we want you to bring ideas and friends. No idea will be too off the wall!!

See you then

Jo and Alan, Annabel, Bidy, Julia, Karen, Maggie and Veronica, from the three parishes.

Summer Fair Meeting

There was a useful and enthusiastic meeting about the arrangements for the Summer Fair on Wednesday 6th April. The familiar stalls, games and attractions will be there and, in addition, Veronica White has agreed to run a FAMILY DOG SHOW in conjunction with the Fair, so be sure to bring the dog as well as the children. There will be 10 novelty classes with rosettes to win, and entry will be on the day at £1 per class. The Fair will be taking place at the Memorial Hall in Charlton Musgrove on Saturday 25th June from 2 till 5 pm.

The next meeting to arrange the details will be at Bayford Chapel at 7.30 pm on Wednesday 18th May. It would be good to have representatives from all the parishes.

ASCENSION DAY

On Thursday 2nd June at North Cadbury Church at 7.00pm there will be a special joint service for the whole Deanery led by our Bishop, the Right Revd Peter Price. It will be a great celebration and all are welcome.

Daffodil Festival. This was a huge success with over 100 visitors from within the Benefice and elsewhere. Many, many thanks to all those who made so many wonderful arrangements and for the originality that went into their design. To the children also who entered into the spirit of the day with their arrangements and excellent artwork. A special thank you to Maggie Giles, Rita Hoddinott, Christine and Karen Perrett, Felicity and Alan Lyall Grant, Alison Dixon and Jane Klier who provided so much support before and during the event. Also to Jo for giving so much of her time to meet and greet visitors; her presence was greatly appreciated. In all we raised £340, which will go towards the maintenance of the windows in the chapel. Common symptoms include a circular red rash which spreads from the bite, along with a fever, headaches and fatigue. Anyone developing these symptoms should consult their GP urgently. Early treatment with antibiotics is usually successful, but if left alone it can spread to the joints, heart, and nervous system, causing memory loss, sleep disturbance and mood swings. LGF
