The adventure of Christmas

I passed a shop this summer which had Christmas goods and Christmas cards on offer - and it was still only August! Every year shops seem to start their Christmas displays a week earlier. But in the annual rush to Christmas (which we all have a sinking feeling about) we risk losing a great deal. In particular we lose the distinctive emphases of Advent which is a season of preparation and expectation.

In Advent we are invited to be still, to be watchful and to be prayerful and to prepare ourselves to celebrate once again the birth of Christ. The word Advent suggests both 'Event' and 'Adventure' and Christmas is both of those things. Christmas is when we remember the birth of a baby in a stable in Bethlehem: a baby who was God himself. This was God taking our nature upon himself and putting into effect his great plan of love, whereby we might be reunited with our Creator. That stable in Bethlehem may seem a long way away from us, but God's love is the same. This is an event for us and our families today - an event to be celebrated.

But Christmas is also an adventure. It was an adventure for the shepherds who 'returned glorifying and praising God for all that they had heard and seen' (Luke 2:20). It is an adventure for us as we open our lives and our homes to God. It is an adventure as we look forward to 2015 and all that that may mean for us. It is an adventure as we trust ourselves and those we love to Christ as Saviour and Lord.

So let me challenge you to take time this Advent to make a space in the rush to pause, to be still, to reflect and to prepare for the wonder and joy that is Christmas. Let us pray that all our church services and activities will help us draw nearer to God and help us to concentrate on the great 'event' and great 'adventure' which is at the heart of all we are celebrating. Furthermore, let us ensure that this Christmas is centred more around the coming of Christ and the needs of others, and less around ourselves.

May God grant you a peace - filled Advent and a joy-filled Christmas.

+Peter Bath and Wells

From the Rectory

We can't really complain anymore if the shops are playing Christmas tunes and festooned with decorations. Christmas really is once again almost upon us. As the nights are getting longer and darker, and the temperature drops, it is easy to understand why our ancestors from long ago needed a midwinter festival to cheer them up and easy to see why, in the spirit of, if you can't beat them, join them, the Church decided it was as good a time as any to celebrate the birth of Jesus. Times weren't easy in Palestine/Israel when Jesus was born, times aren't easy there now. Whatever the angels sang in the night sky above Bethlehem to tell the shepherds about the baby's birth, there is still not "peace on earth, good will towards men". Israeli rabbis have been blown up at prayer in Jerusalem and Palestinian inhabitants of Bethlehem hemmed in and trapped by the wall that separates farmers from their land and olive groves and everyone from the sources of fresh water.

Christians in Israel-Palestine have asked for prayers for peace in the Holy Land to be held on the 24th of every month. If you can at the start of your Christmas festivities, find time to pray for those who still live in the town and land of Jesus' birth.

Eternal God, in your love for this world, you have made places of great beauty.

And always where heaven is present, hell is never far off.

This is our experience; it is the lot of your people.

We recognise it in the world.

Today, we come to hold before you that land on which your son put his feet and first walked the path to heaven across the terrain of the earth.

Help us, as we enter into solidarity with those who are our brothers and sisters in faith and in humanity, not to keep apart Palestinian and Israeli in our prayers, but rather to try with you, and under your guidance, to find a way of holding the broken pieces, that in our lives and through our prayers,

some greater health and some sign of wholesomeness might come,

and a glimpse of your kingdom appear in our hearts and on this earth. Amen.

Community

The quiz night at Charlton Musgrove Memorial Hall was a good test of knowledge and of memory. Groans of “oh, I knew that perfectly well!” came pretty often when we heard the answers. The victorious team of Dangers and Woods (with a small additional Graham) just beat John and Pauline Bastable supported by Hilary and John, by one point. Competition was hot and the field not far behind.

Thank you to the potato bakers and the barmen. We raised £350 in the course of a very cheerful evening

The Walkers riders and cyclist volunteer group have had a very busy year mending and improving the stiles in the parish. We have had twelve volunteer working days and not once did we get wet!! That was until November when we met up to clear our only Byway and it rained hard enough to make up for the 12 dry days and we all got soaked! However it is now all clear for riders to get through and Somerset Council are shortly clearing the byway outside our parish to enable access right through to Knowle Rock and Stoney Stoke. Sir Cameron Mackintosh has also cleared and massively improved our only bridleway which gives villagers access to a whole network of riding by permit through the Stavordale Estate and Stourhead Western Estate. We hope, if all goes well, to finish the stile mending by the end of the year.

Thank you so much to all our landowners who have been fantastically supportive in allowing us to make walking in the village so much easier and more enjoyable. Most of our paths are now also easily accessible for dogs. Please keep your dog under close control as it can scare or harm farm animals. Please also remember that all dogs should be regularly wormed to prevent harmful parasites being passed to farm livestock and also clear up after your dog.

The group has decided to continue by designing and printing a leaflet of circular walks in the village next year. This will be circulated throughout the village and be available at our village hall and the village website. We are currently applying for grants to cover our costs and hope to start planning early in the New Year.

If you would like to join the group to help with this please contact Sally Amery on 01963 31330 or e-mail sally.amery@gmail.com

Mike Dixon 1938 – 2014

Very many thanks to everyone for their kind thoughts, letters and help after Mike died on 17th October. It had been a sad and difficult time for him over the past two years. His memorial service was held at St Andrew’s on 1st November and Mike would have been touched to see so many friends and relations there, some of whom had travelled a long way to attend.

Special thanks go to Jo, who led the service beautifully. Thanks also to Nigel, who was so helpful and dealt efficiently with all the preparations for the service, to Diana at the organ, Mike’s cousin Simon and Kylie for the readings during the service and Rita, Jane, Margie and Diana for the beautiful flowers in the church. Maggie (in her lovely red shoes), joined Simon and old friends, David Roe and Jim Hodge, to share their memories of Mike and make us smile.

Mike much enjoyed his bell ringing days in Stoke Trister and Cucklington and we were very grateful to the team for ringing before the service. Thanks also to Martin Haskett for giving us parking space at Church Farm and to all the friends who provided such delicious sandwiches, canapés and quiches after the service at the house, which were much appreciated and such a help.

Everyone has been extremely generous with donations in memory of Mike, which amounted to an amazing £628 at the last count. This will go to help Macmillan, whose wonderful nurses at the Macmillan Unit at Yeovil District Hospital made such a difference to the many hours he spent there, and to the Cinnamon Trust, a small charity which helps the elderly and their pets.

Christmas Tree Festival 2014, St Andrew's Church Stoke Trister, Friday 12th & Saturday 13th December 2014

There are still places available but please do not delay as there is limited space in the church. Diana Noble will order trees at a discounted rate for those who need them. Please contact Diana on 01963 31071 for further details and to book a space.

The event will open on 13th December with a Cheese & Wine Evening at the church from 6.30 p.m. – 8.30 p.m. The ticket price is £5.00 per adult; children are free and there will be soft drinks and mince pies for them!

On the Saturday the church will be open from 11.00 a.m. – 4.00 p.m. Entrance is free but donations will be most welcome. At 3.00 p.m. on the Saturday there will be congregational singing of advent carols, plus hopefully, a children's group of hand bell ringers.

Please hand in your squares for the Bayford and Stoke Trister Knitted Tree to Diana Noble or Maggie Giles by the end of November. Once on show, there will be a competition to guess the number of knitted squares!

Bayford Chapel

It had been hoped to hold a public consultation on the future of Bayford Chapel in the autumn of this year. Regrettably, matters connected with the trusts associated with this building are taking longer than anticipated to resolve. The PCC are hopeful that it will be possible to hold such a meeting next spring. In the interim period all parish services will continue to be held in St Andrews Church. The Chapel can still be used for meetings and fundraising events.

Community

The December Coffee morning will be on Thursday 4th December at The Well House (with many thanks to Maggie and Marcus Giles) from 10 - 12. There will not be a Bring and Buy, but a Raffle will be held instead,

There will be no Bayford Coffee morning in January

Many congratulations to Janet Smith who celebrated her 80th birthday on 7th November. She is still in Preston Park House in Yeovil.

Pam Gray is now in Verrington Hospital and visitors are welcome.

Christmas Fair - 29th November - Bayford Chapel (10 - 12)

Usual stalls, including books, gifts, tombola, bric-a-brac, raffle, etc. Contributions for these stalls to Maggie or Diana please ASAP or to the Chapel from 2 - 4 pm on Friday 28th November. Please come and support the Fair on 29th as well - there will be things for children (guess the number of sweets in jar) & adults (guess the weight of the Christmas cake) and you might even win a lovely raffle prize or tombola prize!!

On 6th November the regular members of the Bayford Coffee Morning had a real treat when Maureen took us on a mystery trip for a pub lunch, On the way there everyone was guessing the destination which turned out to be the Bull at Hardway where we all sat down to a marvellous three course lunch with a glass of wine and coffee. Most of us had forgotten what we had ordered a few weeks previously, so when our food arrived, that was a surprise too! It was a delicious meal and greatly enjoyed by all who came. Many thanks to Maureen for thinking of this idea and arranging another very enjoyable outing. The bus was rather heavier on the return journey as it negotiated the narrow lanes.
