Filling the gaps

We all know the old adage, one volunteer is worth 10 pressed (wo)men. As we celebrate Volunteer Week 2018 (1-7 June) I want to give thanks for and to the thousands of volunteers across Somerset who love and serve our communities.

Former US first lady Rosalynn Carter once said that a nation without volunteers is a nation without a soul. As we experience continued cuts to our local services, it is volunteers who are 'filling the gaps'. Offering anything from volunteer drivers ensuring isolated older people can get to the shops, to church groups providing space for young families to meet, to share stories and support each other.

Yet they are not only a lifeline for the more vulnerable groups, all our lives are so much richer thanks to our volunteers.

Our churches, and the ministry of each, rely heavily on the generosity of our volunteers. Whether working with children and young people, helping serve tea and coffee after a service, delivering a reading or leading prayers, or being part of the flower or cleaning rota. Your vicar may be a volunteer too – as more people are called to serve as self-supporting ministers. Volunteering is at the heart of Christian service and discipleship. It's about the stewardship of our time and talents.

However we are hearing that nationally, volunteering is in decline, and so it may take a rethink in our approach to release those talents, those gifts. There are many hugely talented people within our churches and our communities but sometimes they may feel reticent about putting themselves forward. People might be too humble, or not confident in their own abilities; feel they are not the right fit or not 'churchy' enough to put their hand up. How much more powerful for all of us if someone we know says to us "you'd be great for that, you have a real gift for it." What an encouragement! By having those conversations we recognise and release those God-given gifts.

And let's be creative. The accountant worshipping in your congregation every Sunday who you have earmarked for the Treasurer role next time around might actually have a passion for creative prayer. Not everyone wants to do their day job in their spare time!

Imagine how our churches might be transformed if we create the roles around the people we have and their gifts, rather than the other way around!

So thank you for your gift of time and talent and be sure to encourage those around you in theirs!

The Right Reverend Ruth Worsley

Bishop of Taunton

From the Organ Bench

One advantage of being an organist over being a priest is that I don't have to preach sermons on the Trinity – something that nobody finds easy. So as we move from Trinity Sunday to lots of Sundays after Trinity, let us salute a heroic early 19th century priest, missionary and bishop who looked to the Bible to inspire him to write a fine hymn on this subject.

Like all good bishops, Reginald Heber (1783-1826) was first a vicar (of Hodnet, on the Shropshire / Cheshire border). He was also a noted scholar and was appointed Bishop of Calcutta in June 1823, arriving in India in October of that year. His see covered all of British India and he pursued a caring and energetic episcopate, sometimes hindered by fever but travelling widely through all parts of India and Ceylon (Sri Lanka). He died suddenly in April 1826, aged only 42.

He wrote many hymns, mostly during his time at Hodnet, and his best-known is undoubtedly Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty. He based it on part of St. John's vision in Revelation (chapter 4, verses 8 to 11). The first line is directly from Revelation, and such phrases as 'Casting down their golden crowns' and 'though the darkness hide thee' convey the mysticism which makes Revelation difficult to understand but ultimately rewarding at least to try. The imagery found favour with Alfred, Lord Tennyson, who thought this the finest hymn ever written.

As so often, a really good tune seals a hymn's popularity. John Bacchus Dykes (1823-76) wrote Nicaea for this hymn (it doesn't fit any other), and its strong melody and firm lead up to the top notes have ensured that Holy, Holy, Holy is sung up and down the country on Trinity Sunday.

In the early 20th century, one unfortunate hymn-book inserted some unhelpful pauses in the first line (presumably to emphasise the 'holiness'), which caused some organists to play it at a funereal pace. Ponderous playing of this and other hymns led to a vogue in the 1960s for some trite little ditties to be written which completely missed the sense of the words: one was composed for Holy, Holy, Holy, and other hymns which suffered similarly for a time were O Jesus, I have promised and At the name of Jesus.

John Dykes's tune for Holy, Holy, Holy isn't a tune that should be rushed. But taken at a firm, moderate pace it does the hymn proud, and it's one of those hymns that give me a 'tingle factor' if I can hear people singing at the tops of their voices even over the full organ.

CHARLTON MUSGROVE FLOWER & PRODUCE SHOW.

The 2018 Show will be held on 8th September at the Village Hall; and if all has gone to plan – the Schedule & Entry form are with this Newsletter. It will also be published on the village website. There are some new classes this year as well as our classics, and don't forget the Family Cup competition. We hope you will find something which will inspire you to 'have a go'.

In previous years we have had visits and displays from the Carymoor Composting Champions and the Balsam Centre Growing Space, but this year we would like you to be the 'added attraction'.

We know, from listening at the Show, that many people have hobbies and interests which we haven't got space to include, so we are providing an opportunity for you to show others your hobby or interest and maybe inspire them to share your enthusiasm. Children don't be left out! For example: - show us about any animal you look after, Lego models you have made, any craft work you are particularly pleased with.

Our community is very creative, as we find out every year, and it would be great to celebrate this at our Annual Show.

Further details from Pauline, Gill or Ceri.

ARTHUR MORISON MEMORIAL HALL – AGM

Saturday 28th April 2018 at 10.00am

Chairman's Report

Despite the vagaries of the weather and all manner of external upheavals, the Arthur Morison Memorial Hall has enjoyed a stable and positive year. That this is so is due in every way to the dedicated group of volunteers who undertake every single task no matter how humble. I am deeply grateful to those who serve and who have served as Trustees and to the hard core of villagers who clean, keep the grounds tidy and generally maintain our first class facility which, let it never be forgotten, runs for the benefit of our two villages, but at absolutely no cost. This year, as so often before, we are also grateful for the continued generosity of the Polygon Trust – there when we have had need.

Usage of the hall has increased by 20% in the year, not least because of more village based activities, which is most welcome. During the year our financial position has remained stable – increased activity is not reflected in income as village events are at a discounted rate and, of course, greater usage means higher expenditure on maintenance and cleaning for example. It is the view of the Trustees that we should try to build greater reserves as just a few expenditure items could exhaust our resources. A particular example is the Hall floor which has been badly mistreated by hirers on a couple of occasions. Resurfacing is expensive.

Following comments we had very effective acoustic panels installed, a process managed completely by Brian Trueman who also arranged the generous gift which made this possible. The largest ongoing task is the raising of funds to resurface the car park which, as we can all see, is in a dire state and particularly unpleasant during the continuous wet weather. What manner of solution we apply is a function of the final sum of money available. This figure will also govern the cash available for other target expenditure when we know what we can afford. At the time of writing we are about to apply to South Somerset District Council for matched funding. We have also obtained a wide spectrum of contractors' quotations for varied degrees of work. We are indebted to Phil Crawford-Smith for leading this complex task and acting as Consulting Engineer to the project. We are also seeking grants from the private sector and Brian Trueman is kindly handling this aspect. Our ideal solution is a complete hard, permeable tarmac to provide a clean, safe surface, which will also deal with the drainage problem, but this may be too expensive.

Other necessary expenditure which has to come out of the Community Benefit pot includes kitchen upgrades to the dishwasher, better driers in the lavatories and some improvements to our provision for the disabled. We have also made provisions for a contribution to the proposed Play area should it proceed.

As remarked we need to build our reserves and income and I am grateful to John Crocker and his committee for their efforts both to add to available activities and to boost Hall income.

Everything we do is for the Community, but we are dependent on a dwindling band of the willing. If the Hall is to continue as it is, first class, available, at no charge to the community then we simply must have more support both as volunteers and as attendees at organised events.

We shall then look forward to another healthy year.

U3A

Our Open and Enrolment day is on the 14th June 2018 at 2.30 at the Caryford Hall, Castle Cary and is open to all.

U3A stands for University of the Third Age; it is a self-help organisation for people no longer in full time employment providing educational, creative and leisure opportunities in a friendly environment. Our local group covers a wide area and is known as the Camelot Group. Local U3As are individual charities in their own right and are run entirely by volunteers. They are learning co-operatives which draw upon the knowledge, experience and skills of their own members to organise and provide interest groups in accordance with the wishes of the membership. The U3A movement is supported by its national organisation, the Third Age Trust.

In the Camelot Group we have some 30 activity groups catering for different interests, some activity based, others study or discussion based, including art, bridge, creative writing, digital photography, discussion, flowers and craft, French, German, history, Latin, literature, lunches, mah jong, patchwork and quilting, poetry, rambling, reading, theatre and wine appreciation. Meetings are spread through the week, generally during the day. There is a local newsletter and monthly meetings in Caryford Hall on the last Friday of the month. Subscriptions are £15 per year.

Come along to see what we do, meet group leaders and maybe join us!"

TEMPLE HOLISTIC THERAPIES

I offer gentle relaxing treatments to balance and help heal mind and body and specialize in Reiki and head, neck and shoulder massage. A hand and foot massage can also be very therapeutic and a good way to begin if you are new to these treatments. I am based in Charlton Musgrove and some treatments can take place in the comfort of your own home.

St Margaret's Support Groups

OCTAGON THEATRE, YEOVIL BA20 1UX

Wednesdays 10.30am – 12.30pm

St Margaret's Support Groups are open to anyone affected by a life-limiting illness – patients, their families and friends

As well as providing an opportunity to meet others in similar situations, our trained volunteers can offer visitors:

- a listening ear
- provide free information
- help signpost to other services

The groups are run on a drop-in basis – there is no need to book or to be referred

Or perhaps you would like to become a volunteer to help run these groups?
