FROM BATH AND WELLS

How welcoming is your church?

How do you feel when you go to a new place for the first time? Probably most of us can remember our first day at school, the beginning of a new job or the move away from home. Anxiety, nervousness at doing or saying the wrong thing and the longing to find a friendly welcome and smile are probably common to most of us. I cannot imagine what it must be like to go to church for the first time ... or after a very long time away because it's always been part of my life. But when I'm on holiday and go to the local parish church I'm reminded that it probably requires great courage and resilience! Why? Because on the whole my experience has been - bluntly - that we Anglicans are not very good at welcome.

I'm spoilt as an Archdeacon ... when I go to a parish usually someone has been briefed to meet me, even carry my bags and make sure I get to the vestry and know what I'm doing. When I go to church on holiday (not in this diocese of course!) my experience has been generally dismal – collecting books from a group of people chatting to one another and no doubt thinking theirs is a very friendly church, no indication as to where to sit ... we all dread the embarrassment of being told we're in someone else's seat ... and no one cheerily saying, 'Good morning, welcome, are you are visitor? Good to see you.... Let me introduce you to so-and-so.' Frankly, I wouldn't want to go back to many of them as the experience felt more like gate-crashing an exclusive club than worshipping God with my brothers and sisters in Christ.

I'm making a plea for us to look at the ministry of welcome. This is not a grand initiative to recruit new congregation members; rather it is offering simple kindness, acceptance and hospitality to another human being. It does not have to be intrusive or cringe-making. It's better to risk getting it wrong and welcoming someone who you later discover has been coming to church for 40 years, than ignoring the stranger. The Letter to the Hebrews says, 'Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it.' (13:2). our faith is centred round a welcoming God who delights in all of us in joyfully gathering for praise and thanksgiving. Yes, I could go on and encourage attractive notice boards, interactive websites, colourful welcome packs and quality refreshments.... but the first step is small, and yet essential – a warm smile and greeting and ensuring the visitor is not ignored.

So, if you are away on holiday – try out the local church and see how its welcome rates. If you are in your own church over the summer weeks, look out for angels in disguise. Archdeacons are easier to spot.
Archdeacon Nicola

FROM THE RECTORY

September once more! The summer holidays over (and we can't say we didn't have a summer this year), children back to school, some starting for the first time and young people taking their first steps to independence as they go off to University: exciting and scary new beginnings for parents and offspring alike. And for those of us freed from the shackles of the academic year, September still marks a turning in the year, towards autumn, towards darker evenings and the beginnings of the counting down of shopping days.... and the excitement of 'Strictly's' return. For me, September brings an anniversary, this year the 29th, of my first ordination (not strictly an ordination though, as at the time the Church of England didn't think women were capable of being ordained, so for me, the first time round, I was made a deaconess). So as well as the sense of things starting up again, I also look back and take stock.

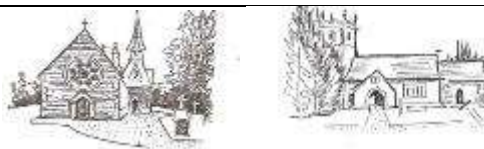

So much has changed. The Church wasn't the centre of most people's lives then by any means but our parish churches across England are certainly on the periphery now. No doubt the next 29 years will see an even bigger change in what the Church of England looks like. According to the still famous hymn "Abide with Me" change and decay go hand in hand. Change is hard and does bring sorrow: few parents will watch a young person start a new job or leave an anxious child starting a new school without feeling apprehensive about what the future holds. And the shrinking of the Church of England is not as obviously hopeful as watching your child start a new phase. But maybe in watching the old and for some of us, comfortable church run out of steam, we may be forced to search for the pearl beyond price to which it always pointed.

HARVEST SUPPER

This is very much a village event - all are welcome at the annual Harvest Auction and Supper at Bayford Chapel on Monday, 30th September starting at 7.00 pm. The Auction is always a fun occasion and is followed by a delicious ploughman's supper prepared by Maggie and Diana. There is no charge for this meal – just come and enjoy the cut and thrust of the auctioneer's quips and be prepared to bid yourself for vegetables, fruit, homemade preserves etc.

A most successful charity bridge lunch was held on 17th July in the Arthur Morison Hall, organised by Diana Noble, in aid of St Andrew's Church and Amigos. A delicious lunch was produced by Diana and her stalwart helpers who all worked so hard, and our thanks to all who helped in any way. A raffle was drawn and everyone who came greatly enjoyed the event, which raised the magnificent sum of £550.

BAYFORD COFFEE MORNING September's coffee morning will be on 5th September at the Chapel from 10 am – 12 noon.

Jam Jars: If you need jam jars contact Tony Watson 01963 3214

Very many thanks to Brian and Averil Ellard for kindly hosting the August coffee morning in their house. We were able to sit in the conservatory and look out over the beautiful garden while they looked after us so well. It was a most welcome change of surroundings from our usual venue to be in such a tranquil place, and we are most grateful to our attentive hosts for a most enjoyable morning.

Win Ward

All her friends in Bayford send best wishes for a speedy recovery to Win Ward, who is in Yeovil Hospital.

Thanks to Ian and Sheena from Stoke Lane, who planted daffodils in the spring, and a wonderful display of flowers by the seat opposite the entrance to the underpass. Ian also keeps the grass cut. Lots of walkers have commented on how nice it looks.

Congratulations to Maggie and Marcus who both had 70th birthdays earlier this year and will also celebrate their 47th wedding anniversary in September. We send them our very best wishes.

CUCKLINGTON

Dennis Thomas

A Memorial Service for Den Thomas, who died recently, will be held at St Lawrence's Church on Thursday, August 29th at 2 pm. Den was a much respected and highly regarded resident of Cucklington, having lived in the village all his life. He had worked on the farm at Clinger, been a gardener at Shanks and helped as an agricultural tutor at Gillingham School. He was an accomplished ballroom dancer, winning a number of trophies. He had a love of the outdoors, maintained a small aviary when he lived at Harmas Cottage, and was a keen supporter of the Hunt. In essence, he was a true countryman.

Summer Fair.

Thank you to all the people who contributed to the success of the Summer Fair. There were delicious teas, good raffle prizes to be won and bottles galore on the tombola; Veronica ran a great dog show; there were lovely cakes and home-made buns and biscuits, plants, books and treasures on the nearly new stall. Thanks to Claude and Joe for bringing the skittles along; and an extra thank you to Lynn for the thirty beautiful Stavordale cheeses which were very much enjoyed, and at £10 each made a very welcome contribution to the cause. The total – split three ways – was £2,210.18. Next year it will be our turn to host it here in Charlton Musgrove, so please get thinking about exciting new ways to make it a great day.

Mowers? Would anyone like to help with the churchyard mowing at St. Stephens? It will probably only need 2 more mowings this year. Maybe we could get a few people to job-share, so that it isn't asking too much of one person. Veronica or Jonathan would love to hear from you!

Peter Rochford: Charlton Musgrove has lost a real supporter in Pete Rochford, who very sadly died at the beginning of July. In his quiet under-stated way he was a prime mover in achieving the new Village Hall, just as he was instrumental in so many other community projects which he supported. He was generous with his time, and if asked for advice would give totally focused and practical answers and solutions, which were very much appreciated. And that was in his spare time from running his own impressive business. He set a great example of an effective, positive and can-do man, who will be much missed by friends and acquaintances, but particularly by his family. We send our condolences to Dibby, Kerry and Mark.

HARVEST This year we're having the Village Harvest Supper on the same day as the Harvest Service: SUNDAY 6th OCTOBER starting at 6pm in the Village Hall. The prices are the same as last year: £7.50 for adults and £2.50 for children, for which you will get two courses of delicious food and the first drink. Everyone is very welcome, church-goers or not.

CHARLTON MUSGROVE COUNTRYSIDE GROUP
Spinney Wood All Weather Pathway Project 26/27th October

The CMC group are proposing to clear the ground in the woodland of brambles, bracken, fallen trees and branches to allow a pathway wide enough to take prams and wheelchairs. Care will be taken to ensure the natural beauty and wildlife is not damaged in anyway. This is a great family community project. Please contact Bob Parker 07769913475 if you are able to lend a hand over the weekend period.

Barn Owl Chicks. Good News; we have found 3 owlets born in the Somerset Wildlife Trust sponsored box at Somerlea Farm. Chris Sperring MBE opened the box finding two female and one male chick 6 to 8 weeks old and ready to fledge. Chris was able to ring each chick and has registered them with the trust. Barn Owls have struggled this year with the heavy rain in spring. Breeding numbers have been down so this is a great result for our local community in encouraging Barn Owls in our Parish.

Rights of Way

The walkers, riders and cyclists group have now completed the survey of all our rights of way, had the go ahead from the majority of our landowners and obtained a grant from South Somerset District Council for the cost of the materials needed. We are currently resolving some insurance issues with South Somerset Council and the Parish Council and hope to be able to start work improving the stiles etc in October. At least the ground won't be so hard then! If anyone is interested in helping with this work please contact Sally Amery tel 01963 31330.
